

TROY D. TERRONEZ

Senior Lecturer, Defense Resources Management Institute (DRMI)
Naval Postgraduate School

Troy Terronez is Senior Lecturer at the Defense Resources Management Institute (DRMI) at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, California. Prior to joining the DRMI faculty in May of 2017, he served in senior Department of Defense (DoD) civilian comptroller positions in the U.S. and Europe following a career as an active duty Naval Officer.

His previous assignment was as Comptroller at Commander, Navy Region Mid-Atlantic (CNRMA), the largest region within the Commander, Navy Installations Command (CNIC) enterprise which is homeport to almost 90 U.S. Navy ships and submarines and 39 aircraft squadrons. In this capacity he led a professional financial management staff exceeding fifty personnel in the annual execution of over 1.6 billion dollars of congressionally appropriated funds and in excess of eight billion through the Department of Defense's (DoD) Future Years Defense Program (FYDP). He was directly responsible for all aspects of the formulation, justification and defense of this annual operating budget which includes labor and non-labor funding for Operations and Maintenance, Operations and Maintenance Reserve, Overseas Contingency Operations and Family Housing Navy which supports a military and civilian workforce and their families and retired active duty military and survivors exceeding 400,000 personnel at fourteen Naval Installations, 47 Navy Operational Support Centers and numerous special interest areas across 20 states and 185 congressional districts encompassing the mid-Atlantic seaboard and totality of the Northeastern United States. Mr. Terronez was also responsible as CNRMA's lead for all DoN Financial Improvement and Audit Readiness (FIAR) initiatives to ensure compliance with individual Navy Segment assertion goals and schedules.

Prior to reporting to CNRMA in May of 2015, Mr. Terronez served as both Deputy Comptroller and Comptroller at Commander Navy Region Europe, Africa, Central (CNREURAFCENT) in Naples, Italy. In this capacity, he was responsible for manpower management, finance and accounting, Chief Financial Officer (CFO) Act compliance, and overall financial performance for the CNREURAFCENT Region which spans three continents, 6 countries, 8 installations, numerous Navy and National Support Elements, Cooperative Security Locations (CSLs) and Forward Operating Sites (FOSs) in support of three, 4-star Geographic Combatant Commanders.

Mr. Terronez served 22 years in the United States Navy retiring in the fall of 2010. His sea duty assignments include USS LAFAYETTE (SSBN 616) home ported in Holy Loch Scotland, USS NIMITZ (CVN 68) home ported in Bremerton, WA and USS VICKSBURG (CG 69) home ported in Mayport, FL. Shore assignments include Polaris Material Office Pacific in Bremerton, WA, U.S. Naval Postgraduate School in Monterey, CA, Logistics Manager for the SEAWOLF Submarine program and Chairman, Submarine Networks Integration Working Group at Naval Sea Systems Command in Arlington, VA, Comptroller at Naval Support Activity Naples Italy, Comptroller at Commander, Navy Region Europe also in Naples Italy, and Executive Officer at Navy Supply Information Systems Activity in Mechanicsburg, PA.

Mr. Terronez holds a Bachelor of Science in Management Science and Computer Systems from Oklahoma State University and a Master of Science in Information Technology Management from the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School. He is Department of Defense Financial Management (DoDFM) Certification Program Level III certified, a member of the Department of Defense Acquisition Professional Community (DoD APC), is Defense Acquisition Workforce Improvement Act (DAWIA) Level III certified in DoD Acquisition Logistics, a graduate of the Center of Excellence in Logistics and Technology (LOGTECH) from the Kenan-Flagler Business School at the University of North Carolina, the Advanced Management Program (AMP) from The Tench Francis School of Business, and the U.S. Navy Senior Leader Seminar at the U.S. Naval Postgraduate School's Center for Executive Education.