Master of Science in Program Management (MSPM)

Graduate School of Defense Management

Commencing 07 July 2020

Distance Learning Program using a Web-based, Virtual Classroom Environment

The MSPM is a nonresident, part-time online program for qualified DoD military, federal civilian employees and defense contractors. During this 24-month distance learning program, students who complete the degree also earn DAU equivalency for Acquisition Production and Quality Management (PQM101,201), Software Acquisition (ISA101), Systems Engineering for Acquisition Managers (SYS202), Acquisition and Contract Management (CON90,100,121,124,127), Test and Evaluation (TST204), Acquisition and Program Management (ACQ101,201,203; PMT251,252; EVM101; & BCF110), and Strategic Planning and Policy for the Logistics Manager (LOG103). The program also meets DAWIA requirements for 24 hours of business subjects and 40 hours of annual continuous learning.* Applicants without previous program management experience are eligible for admission.

Students take two courses a quarter for eight consecutive quarters. The program will be delivered over the Internet using a web-based, virtual classroom tool in two 3-hour sessions a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 0800–1100 or 1200–1500 (Pacific Time). To use the virtual classroom, students will need a computer with high speed internet access, a PC microphone/speaker (mandatory) and a PC camera (optional). The price is $2250 per course. Eligible active duty naval officers are mission funded. Students are required to purchase textbooks and course materials.
