Center for Civil-Military Relations

SNAPSHOT: In-Residence Courses 2018

Combating Terrorism Fellowship Program (CTFP)

P179018 - Civil-Military Responses to Terrorism

This course provides a thorough understanding of terrorism in all its forms, emphasizing strategy formulation and international cooperation. The program utilizes case studies and a table top exercise to stimulate discussion, which assist in providing participants with the insight needed to design successful strategies to defeat terrorist networks, protect citizens and property, and address the root causes of terrorism.

International Defense Acquisition Resource Management (IDARM)

P159200 - Principles of Defense Acquisition Management

This course provides a theoretical examination of defense acquisition and logistics combined with practical application in a variety of national settings. Additionally, international best practices are discussed along with the challenges associated with implementation.

P159202 - Principles of Defense Procurement & Contracting

This course provides a practical examination of defense procurement and contracting issues. It includes a comparative analysis of US, EU, and NATO models of contracting. Course participants examine the methodologies that ensure needs-based requirements, work in groups to develop and issue requests for tender, and apply reasoned decision making in supplier selection.

P179069 - International Defense Acquisition Negotiations

The course focuses on planning and preparing for negotiations with a special emphasis on negotiation of complex issues in a multi-cultural environment. Extensive in-class negotiations are conducted. Course participants learn their negotiating style preference and how and when to adapt their negotiation style given the behavior and goals of the parties.

P179623 - Principles of Defense Acquisition & Contract Management

This course combines both our Defense Acquisition and Contract Management courses into one, with Spanish language instruction.

International Defense Transformation (IDT)

P170370 - Cybersecurity Policy & Practice

This course is intended for nations that are interested in developing capabilities to defend cyberspace from attack. National security, economic prosperity, and citizen safety are threatened daily through exploitation, intrusion or disruption in cyberspace by criminal, transnational, or regional competitors. This offering prepares decision makers to effectively consider, design, and implement policies and practices for safeguarding the use of cyberspace.

P170001 - Executive Program in Defense Decision Making

The program has been structured to emphasize the impact of transformation on security and defense decision making in contemporary global environment. Main themes include: threat assessment, development of national security strategies, capability-based approaches, defense institution building, roles and missions of security and defense forces, and intelligence structures and processes.

Intelligence & Democracy Program (INTEL)

P170009 - Intelligence, Policy, & Democracy

This course aims to assist countries in consolidating their democracies from the perspective of institutionalizing democratic intelligence systems, with particular focus on the role and contribution of policymakers to reform.

Prevention, Relief, & Recovery (PR&R)

P170475 - Civil-Military Coordination in Disaster Relief

This seminar emphasizes the knowledge and process skills that are needed for government civilian agencies, non-governmental organizations, inter-governmental organizations, and the armed forces to work more effectively alongside each other in disaster response at home and abroad.

P170472 - Disaster Management

This course provides an overview of the approaches countries use to mitigate, prepare for, and respond to disasters or emergencies of many types. It introduces contemporary topics of disaster management such as crisis logistics, urban/rural differences, inter-ministerial and inter-level coordination, and emerging technologies for disaster management. Participants will gain a solid grounding in the organizational structures, strategies, and implementation processes to apply to their own country challenges and circumstances.

P173019 - Security Risks of Refugees & Displaced Persons

The response to migration and displacement crises is a recurrent requirement for armed forces and their governments both at home and during international peace operations. These situations affect both the displaced people and the host population in dramatic ways that must be addressed in short order. This course addresses preparation, response, and collaboration with the international community for these crises. Special emphasis is placed on the security aspects of migration and displacement crises.

P171063 - Reintegration of Ex-Combatants & Violent Extremists

Dealing with ex-fighters as a conflict winds down or a peace agreement is implemented or as they leave violent extremist organizations is tremendously difficult yet hugely important for achieving durable peace. This course provides practical approaches and best practices from integration into the national security forces to community-based reintegration to de-radicalization programs among others.

P170030 - Managing Ethnic Conflict & Religious Violence

The workshop introduces contemporary thinking on what causes and animates ethnic and religious tensions and violence. Participants learn conflict analysis, conflict management, and conflict resolution techniques appropriate for use in the home countries or within international peace operations. In addition, the topics of prevention and recovery are also explored.

Maritime Security Program (MS)

P179548 - Civil-Military Approaches to Maritime Security

This course evaluates and prioritizes all maritime transnational threats to participating nations; distinguishes maritime terrorism from piracy and examines ways to deal with both phenomena; defines 'Maritime Domain Awareness' and the capacity of participating nations to deliver 'Maritime Governance'; discusses the impact of 'Illegal Maritime Trafficking'; and examines the issues related to port security.

AFRICA Program

P170036 - Governance & Security in Sub-Saharan Africa

The main theme of this program is to examine the interfaces between security and governance common to developing countries in the region. An important aspect of discussion will be to distinguish between traditional security (the state level) and human security (the individual level), and to discuss how (or if) governments should use armed forces to do both..
